Wallabies

They are marsupials.

They are herbivores, which means they eat plants and grass.

They live for about 9 years. They enjoy swimming.

They are born without fur.

twinkl.com

Koalas

They are marsupials.

They are nocturnal, which means they sleep during the day.

They sleep for 20 hours per day.

They have small brains.

They only eat eucalyptus leaves.

twinkl.com

Emu

They are the second largest bird on the planet!

They don't fly.

They have three toes on each foot. Their ancestors lived around the same time as dinosaurs.

They are very fast at running!

twinkl.com

Possum

They are marsupials.

There are 23 different types of possums.

They are nocturnal.

They eat eucalyptus leaves, plants and flowers.

They can make funny noises, like hissing and growling!

twinkl.com

Wombat

They are marsupials.

They are nocturnal.

They eat grass and roots.
They can live for up to 30 years.

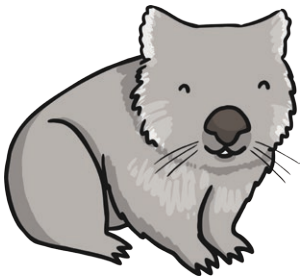
They build big burrows
to make their home.



twinkl.com

Crocodile

They are carnivores.

They don't chew their food.

They have very good eyesight.

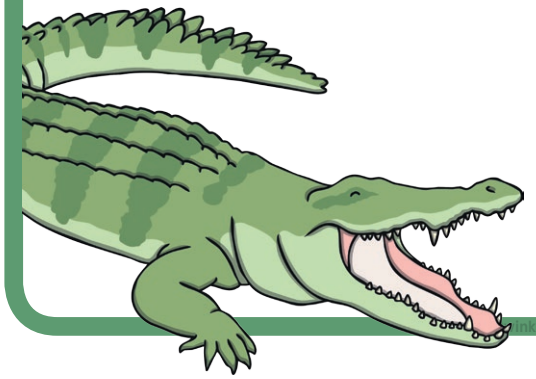
They lay eggs.

They live for up to 60 years.



twinkl.com