

Lesson 4 - Writing the verses using your plan

Now, using Kit Wright's starter line, 'I will put in the box,' organise your six ideas into two verses. Obviously if you have more ideas then write another verse as well. If you are doing your writing with a parent, why not let them put something into your box? Remember to try and use some of the features of free verse - alliteration, onomatopoeia, short lines, long lines, repeated lines.
